The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1, 2 and 5-7 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Kubota et al. (French Patent 2,670,191).

Kubota et al. show first conveyor 1 and second conveyor 4 which run at first and second conveying speeds in a side by side manner and a transfer device 3 with deflecting members 2 for transferring articles t from the first conveyor to the second conveyor.

Re claim 2, transfer member 3 is a drum and the orientation of the articles is changed as they move between the two conveyors.

Re claim 5, the two conveying surfaces are coplanar.

Re claim 6, the two conveyors are first and second working branches.

Re claim 7, at some point in it's rotation the deflecting member moves along a first direction.

Claims 3, 4 and 8-14 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.
